Duffs, Turners reunite

The Duffs and the Turners had a family reunion this Saturday (July 25) at the home of George Duff in Oakville.

Fifty-four people attended the event, including family and friends ranging in age from 85 years to 13 months.

The occasion brought together relatives who had been apart for several years and who may have never met before.

The "Cousin-Calling Contest" was one of the highlights of the day. Everyone took advantage of the fresh country air and cleared their lungs with a yell to a cousin of their choice.

The fun only began there. The rest of the day was filled with talking, reminiscing, horseshoes, a hay ride, and plenty of homecooking.

Everyone went away with a smile on their face and with the memory of a special day.

Miss Chenault honored

Miss Kaye M. Chenault, bride-elect, was honored on Monday evening, July 20 when Mrs. Florence Trent and her daughter, Miss Lina Trent, entertained at their home with a bridal shower.
